FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Iowa Board member Yasyn Lee appointed to National Board of Medical Examiners

DES MOINES, IA – Yasyn Lee, M.D., a member of the Iowa Board of Medicine, has been appointed to the National Board of Medical Examiners (NBME) as a test committee representative.

The NBME is an independent, not-for-profit organization that develops the three-step U.S. medical licensing examination (USMLE) for applicants seeking initial licensure to practice medicine in the United States. The board is composed of approximately 80 members representing the academic community, national professional organizations, state licensing boards, medical students and residents, the federal government and the public.

Dr. Lee practices psychiatry in Dubuque. She has been a member of the Iowa Board of Medicine since 2004, serving as chairperson from May 2006 through April 2009. She was a member of the Iowa Physician Health Committee from 1997 to 2003, serving as chairperson from August 2000 through November 2003.
